Lace Curtains!

Is Our Talk Today.

Not of the ordinary, every-day kind, that can be seen in every store, but of those kinds which are seldom shown except in large cities. No store, regardless of the magnitude of its buying and selling powers, ever offered for sale a finer line of Cluney, Renaissance, Arabians, Irish Point and Pont du Sprit Lace Curtains, so it is with confidence that we today throw open the doors of this store to begin a period of value-giving that has never been excelled. We are showing a few patterns of these beautiful Curtains in our windows today.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

See Saturday sale at Fitts'. Charles Zamboni of Boston arrived in the city last night for a few days' business visit.

Earl Waterman is home from the university of Vermont at Burlington to spend the spring vacation.

E. A. Drown had the Welsbach reflex gas lamps installed in his drug store yesterday by the gas company.

Conductor S. R. Colby, for many years on the Barre branch of the Central Vermont railway, is taking a long vacation for the benefit of his health, and is moving to his farm near Montpelier Junction.

The new sugar social held at the Methodist church last evening was largely attended. Excellent sugar was served, which was made by Frank Allen. The social was given by the Ladies' and Pastor's union.

At the regular meeting of Bright Star Rebekah lodge last evening, the president of the state Rebekah assembly, Miss Mabel Gibson of Rutland, made her initial visit, and the degree was conferred upon two candidates. At the conclusion of the degree work, maple sugar on snow was served.

W. C. or "Bill" Hazelton, a player on the Barre ball team of 1897, since then a star on several teams, including Burlington in the Northern league, left Burlington last night for Johnston, Pa., to represent that city in the Tilt-state league. This probably means that Burlington's entry into baseball is doubtful.

The annual Easter sale held by the ladies of the Congregational church yesterday afternoon and evening met with good success. There was a good attendance and the pretty fancy work articles and aprons found ready customers.

A very pleasing entertainment was given in the evening, which consisted of a tea cup drill master done by ten young girls; a song by Wille Ewert; a recitation by Lloyd Rogers; a violin solo by Harold Knight; and a recitation by Fay Mann. The ladies realized a goodly sum from the sale.

Just received, new Victor records, quartette, and solos, at A. Diversi's, corner Main and Merchant streets. Come in and hear them.

Auction! Saturday, April 6th. New City Auction Mart, Depot square. Furniture, kitchen ware, Glenwood heaters, covered buggy, etc., goods too numerous to mention. Herbert A. Rugg, Auctioneer.

Mrs. A. M. Longley, having returned from Boston with a full line of millinery, has opened a parlor millinery at 36 Keith avenue; she also has a large assortment of shirt waist and suiting samples direct from New York. A call is solicited.

Cyril Scott in "The Prince Chap," as seen at Madison Square theatre and Weber's Broadway theatre, New York, will be presented at the Barre opera house next Tuesday evening. "A child play—artist's studio life—a heart story—real comedy—a play that fascinates—something new in stage fiction—it's the company—it's the star—it's the play." The critics commented from these various points of view in explaining the success of "The Prince Chap." From the different reports received during the New York run, it is plain that all the above qualities entered into the contest and won equally. The author, Edward Pease, the manager, W. N. Lawrence, the star, Cyril Scott, and the excellent company all contributed with the result that "The Prince Chap" is one of the best things New York has offered theatregoers in many a day.
